

Ms. Addie Akins

February 26, 1935 - May 13, 2019

Mother Addie Akins was born on February 26, 1935 in Lowndes County, Alabama, the daughter of Dudley and Inez Grant-Gilliam. She passed away May 13, 2019 at the age of 84 blessed years of life.

She was a longtime resident of Detroit, Michigan until her retirement from Mt. Carmel Hospital in the late 1990's. Addie accepted Christ at an early age and, upon moving to Saginaw, MI in 2001, became a member of the New Hope Missionary Baptist Church where she was a faithful and dedicated member of the Kitchen Committee, the Mother's Board, Choir and diligently attended Sunday School, Mission and Bible Study.

While in Saginaw, Addie also became a Home Health Aide. She was known for cooking the most delicious dressing, and the way she loved people and enjoyed life. She never met a stranger and always welcomed them with her warm personality.

She had the most soul stirring voice and will be remembered for passionately singing her favorite hymns: "Precious Lord" and "This May Be My Last Time". Despite having no children of her own, Addie enjoyed the company of her family, especially her numerous nieces and nephews.

To treasure her memory, Addie leaves her sisters, Juanita Witherspoon, Georgianna Kelly, Fannie (Robert) Randall and Rella Gilliam; special niece and nephew, Janie Cork and Dr. Henry Bernard Randall; many additional nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and a special friend, Flora Coleman.

Ms. Addie was preceded in death by her parents, Dudley and Inez Grant-Gilliam; two sisters, Berniece Surles and Sue White Gilliam and five brothers.

The family would like to give a special thanks to the Staff at Covenant Healthcare-Harrison, Evans & Browne's Funeral Home, Dr. Willie F. Casey and the New Hope Baptist Church family.

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, May 20, 2019 at New Hope

Missionary Baptist Church, 1721 Tuscola Street, Saginaw, MI 48601. Dr. Willie F. Casey will officiate. Friends may call at the church from 9:00 a.m. until time of service.
