May 14, 1993 - September 3, 2020

Then Jesus told them this parable: "Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent. Luke 15:3-7 (NIV)

“ A memory I would like to share that involves my brother Kyle, is from a time from a bit earlier this year. Both my brothers and I were hanging out at my house and it's been a long time since it was just the three of us spending time together. We were having a good time, Kyle had drank a little and was having blast. He was concerned that I'd be upset with him, I was just happy to see he was having a good time. One thing that shocked me that night was when he told his friends online “my brothers are the two strongest people I know” it made me really happy to hear that. I felt like he was proud. I wish I had more time to spend with him.
