🌸 Mother Bond, it seem so unreal for me to write this about you. I had a special bond with you and your Sisters. It was like you all kind of adopted me. Or when it came to me you went old school on me. Like I was one of your own. That's how you treated me. I appreciated you and loved you for that.

You watch me grow up in the church. And help me grow in the church. I'm so hurt by your passing. I thought I was going to get to see you again before now.

I always use to sit in the corner by you. Because I knew the Mothers on that side of the church. Was saved and really knew the Lord. And I wanted it to rub off on me.

I remember we even had the same orange suit. I was like Oh Wow! I'm doing something right now. You were always someone that I could look up too. I miss you and love you, RIH🙏
