

Al Holiday

October 25, 1953 - October 20, 2013

Our beloved father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend, went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, October 20, 2013 at St. Mary's of Michigan surrounded by his loved ones.

Mr. Holiday was born October 25, 1953 in Saginaw, MI to Odessa (Ray) Jones and James C. Holiday. They preceded him in death. Al accepted Christ at an early age. He was a member of Mt. Nebo Baptist Church. He began his employment at the age of 16 years at A & P Grocery Store on Genesee and Cherry Streets. In 1972, he worked briefly at the Eaton Corp. and later was employed by Saginaw Steering Gear where he became EAP Rep. He retired from Delphi in 2001.

Mr. Holiday graduated from Arthur Hill Technical High School in 1971. He was also a graduate of Delta College and Central Michigan University. Other accomplishments of Mr. Holiday were Saginaw County Commissioner (5 terms), 1st Black Chairman, Saginaw County Board of Commissioners, A. Phillip Randolph Institute, Delegate of Democratic National Convention, Life member of NAACP, CAP Council, Saginaw County Mental Health Board, Saginaw County Housing Commission, Saginaw County Public Health Board, and the Saginaw County Human Services. Al always had a concern for helping the underprivileged.

His memory will be cherished by one son, Byron Holiday; one daughter, Brandi (Quincy) Hayes; two stepsons, Johnny (Andrea) Austin and Jarvis Austin; four grandchildren who were the love of his life, Solathian (Quan) Holiday, Quintaja, Gabrielle, and Quincy Hayes, Jr.; one brother, Dennis (Emma) Morrison; six sisters, Ernestine Ray of Blytheville, AR, Ruth Morrison and Diane Morrison (Larry) of Saginaw, MI, Brenda Coleman of Grand Rapids, MI, Debra Williams and Cheryl (Ricky) Nash, both of Saginaw, MI; his fiancé, Sheryl Williams; godchild, Diamond Morrison; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends, including special friends, Kenneth Fields, Bill Dugan, Parrish Anderson, Cleophus (Claudette) Bray, Gary McClain, and Dexter Holiday.

Mr. Holiday was preceded in death by his biological father, Pressie Fentress; step-father, Albert Jones; one brother, Curtis Sumler; and one sister, Regina Day.

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, October 28, 2013 at the Wolverine State Baptist Headquarters, 615 South Jefferson Avenue. Pastor Willie Hill, Jr. will officiate with interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Friends may call at the Evans & Browne's Funeral Home, 441 North Jefferson Avenue on Sunday from 2:00 until 8:00 p.m. The family will be present to greet friends from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m.

“ Dear Holiday Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.

“ AI, You have always been a good Cousin and friend. I will miss and remember the many talks we had, the knowledge and wisdom shared. The many fun times we all had in Washington,DC. and here in Michigan. I have always been so proud of you! Your a talented, intelligent, wise, and sensitive person who touched so many people, always willing to extend your time, talent, and love to this community. Whether it was Jessie Jackson, or the Governor of Michigan, you were always proud to introduce me as Bruce your Cousin. My heart is broken, and I will never forget you, always love you cousin. Rest in peace in the arms of our Lord! To Ruth, Bull, and all my other Cousins my prayers and love are with you.

“ To Brandi, Byron, and the entire Holiday family, may God continue to keep you and give you the strength that your hearts need as you continue to move forward in this journey we call life. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord; and in this we can find assurance that one day we will see our loved ones again! Continue to trust in the Lord, for it is He alone that will get you through this tough time. Know that even when you cannot pray for yourself, that you have friends and loved ones who are praying for you. The pain from losing your father will never subside, it has been 3 years for me now, but Glory to God that with time it is a little easier to press forward and you too will get there. I love you guys so much and I am saddened that you are hurting. Know that my family and I are here for you. Growing up together on the "Ave" we all endured some of the same joys, pains, happy times, etc. If you guys need me, you know I am only a phone call away. MUAH

We want you to know that you and your family are in our prayers, that you find comfort in knowing that Al is resting in the arms of Jesus. We know that this is a difficult time for all of you but we also know a name that can ease the pain, fill the void, dry your tears and keep the memories of Al in your heart and that name is JESUS. God knows that you loved Al but God loved him best.*

Look to the hills from where all your help and strength can and will come from. It comes from the Lord. We are praying with you as well as for you as you endure the days ahead.

Because He lives, we can face tomorrow. Dennis we are here.

“ Wow! who would ever thought, life is rushing so fast that turn into memories. I worked with Al at General Motors. He always displayed a pleasant attitude & was very helpful. I know the family The Woods & Akins & Dugan's & his siblings. My prayers goes out to the entire family that is connect with Al, I pray for his children for there strength at this time. Be encourage knowing absent from the body is present with the Lord according to the Apostle Paul. Al physical body may be gone from this earthly plane, but he has return back unto his creator. Al well done thy faithful servant enter into your REST! Elder Peter Cooper, Dallas, Texas
