“ I'm SO sorry to hear of the passing of Ms Alandya Taylor...I used to work at Jesse Loomis as a Lunch Aide and she was our 5th grade teacher. Anytime I wanted to get away from everyone, I would go sit in her classroom and talk to her. I absolutely loved her. She was a great teacher who always put her students first but always never hesitate to stay firm on her students and told me who could play at recess and who couldn't due to bad behavior. She was one of my favorite and it breaks my heart that she is gone. I will pray for your family strength.

“ My thought and prayers go out to the Taylor Family. Lane and Mrs. Lucinda was always their to comfort others in their time of need. So on the behalf of the NELSON and SLEDGE families I offer my condolences. As a child that was also bought up in Tabernacle church I was taught and I know that I will see Lane again up their in those pearly gates of Heaven. John 14: 1-4 " Let not your heart be troubled Believe in GOD; In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going."

Rest on Lane Taylor.

“ Ms. Taylor was my 4th and 5th grade teacher. Her passion for helping students grow in their quest for knowledge and success, her wit, and her compassion convicted me as a young man and immediately brought her in as an extended member of my family, having kept in touch for the past 16 years since my immediate family moved from Michigan to the south. Her words, humor, and her wisdom will stay with me for the rest of my life journey. She was a huge part that led me to my graduate studies in school counseling so that I may also have the opportunity of empowering young people as they grow into the authentic individuals that they will become.

I will miss you dearly, Ms. Taylor. May God's perpetual light forever shine upon your beautiful and passionate soul. My condolences goes out to her mother, Ms. Lucy, and all of her family and friends that she loved so very much.

I know God does not make any mistakes, however it does not ease the pain of losing a loved one. I didn't see her as much but when I did it was like we seen each other everyday. I will miss her laugh and kind spirit always helping out others. She always would keep you laughing even at the moment we shouldn't be laughing. I find comfort knowing that I will see you again and that God will provide the strength needed to endure this heavy heart of mine. I love you and going to truly miss you. “ Lane was a beautiful person that I have known since childhood. We grew up together at Tabernacle Baptist Church. Later in life, she became my grandchildren's adopted grandmother, especially little Quincy. She loved him as only a grandmother could. I thanked God constantly for the love she showed my children, grandchildren, and great grandchild. She was at every special occasion there was, open house, birthdays, baptisms, baby showers, you name it, she and Nana Lucy were there. My whole family truly loved this lady and her mom. I ask the Lord to watch over her mom all her days left here on Earth. She was just a beautiful lady with a heart of gold. Thank you Lord for her amazing heart and personality.
