“My cousin, my Re Re, it’s so hard to comprehend that you are no longer on earth with us. Only 13 years apart in age, that’s a blessing in and of itself. So many memories. I’m so grateful to have been able to see you in Mississippi, to hug you and hear that infectious laugh again. I’m also grateful I heard your voice recently and told you over and over again how much I love you and you did the same. I’m also glad I recorded you riding on the back of that ATV wheeler with our cousin Diane that sunny day. I have watched that video a dozen times now, with tears and a heavy heart. Rest my cousin, you have faught a good fight. I love you.
