Alonzo Price was born March 19, 1942 in Anguilla, MS to Helen and Pollard Price. On March 7, 2007, Alonzo peacefully left this earth to join his Savior. Anyone who knew him knew he loved his job. He worked for General Motors for 40 years. He wasn't a man of many words and was very easy to please. All he needed was a good day on the job, a good meal, and the blues. He worked hard to make sure his wife and family had everything they needed and wanted. Alonzo leaves behind his wife of 39 years, Bobby Gene Price and his four children; Bethany (Alvin) Blackwell, Dawn Marshall, Tykheema Price and Tolleah Price. Alonzo was blessed to have seven grandchildren he helped raise, Brennon Marshall, Alvin and Quentin Blackwell, Tiara Howell, Taylor Parker, Shantel "Boonka" Brooks, and MaKayla Brooks. His sisters and brothers; Bertha (Leon) Payne, James (Doris) Price, Artie (Shirlyn) Price, Barbara (Melvin) Conner, Dorothy Wright, Voncecelia "Bonnie" Price, and Sherry Price will miss him. Alonzo comes from a large family and has many cousins, nieces, nephews, and in-laws that will also cherish his memory. His closest friends were, Oscar Creed, Willie Harvey and Eddie Clark. He was preceded in death by his mother and father, sister, Helen Price, brothers, L.C.

Williams, Earl and Pollard Price. The Price family would like to thank his caregivers, Ebony Bledsoe, Laverne Robinson, Sherry Blacksher, Sharon and Tonja.

“ The Lord Is With You "The Lord makes so many good things happen in our lives that we might think He's abandoned us when sorrow comes along. But the Lord knows when we're hurting, and it's then that he draws closer to us. In our Sorrow, we may not feel His presence, but that doesn't change His promise to be with us... and we may not understand, but He doesn;t ask us to. All he ask is that we trust Him."

May the love of God sustain you...
the peace of God be with you... and the promise of God comfort you during this time of sorrow.

“ Alonzo was my relief man and he taught me everything I knew on the automatic iron pourer. He was the hardest working man I ever saw. May God bless the Price family. Read Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
