

Mrs. Amy Lee Jones

March 30, 1938 - June 1, 2025

Our loved one, Mrs. Amy Jones, formerly of Saginaw, Michigan.

Amy Lee Dixon was the oldest daughter of seven children born to Bishop Sam, Sr. and Pernola Dixon on March 30, 1938, in Natchez, MS. She grew up working in the fields, driving her daddy's truck, and attending church every Sunday. After graduating high school, Amy played college basketball for a short time.

Amy met the love of her life, Albert, in Mississippi, and they married on March 31. They moved to Saginaw, MI, and together, they raised Debra Jones, Deardrea Jones, Bruce W. (Alice) Jones Sr., Nettie Jones, and Lorissa (Troy) Bridgewater. She would begin working and retired from Community Hospital Service. They would serve the Lord by joining St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church. Amy has dedicated herself to various capacities within the church, such as Youth Director, Adult Choir member, the Nurses Guild and the Usher Board.

Amy loved God and instilled this value in her family. She also loved to cook, read her bible, watch tennis and football, crochet, and travel with her sisters.

Amy Lee Jones leaves to cherish her memories of three sisters, Adine Moore, Rosie Dixon and Christine Dixon; she also leaves to mourn, ten grandchildren,

Bruce Achan (Diedra) Jones, Mark Allen Jr., Princess (Timothy), Bruce W. Jones Jr. (Vanessa), Candie (Jimmy) Green, Jasmine (Justin) Jackson, X'avier(Hadaya) Hunt, Dominique Jones, Precious Jones, Paris Jones, Latreece Mann, Troy Bridgewater Jr., Trayvon Bridgewater, and Toriana Bridgewater. 31 Great Grandchildren and one great- great- grandchild, Milani Stephens. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and close friends. She was preceded in death by her eldest daughter, Debra Jones; husband, Albert Jones; brother, Sam Dixon Jr.; Henry Dixon; sister, Josie Moore and Lois Dixon; mother, Pernola Dixon and father, Bishop Sam Dixon, Sr. Rest in Heaven Big Momma! We love you!

Homegoing service will take place in Tampa, Florida
