“ Andrea! I'm the nurse who always saw the picture of your children. You were so happy showing that newest addition that baby boy!!! You always had a smile on your face and always displaying your award pins on your lapels. I miss not seeing your beautiful and warm smile coming into krogers. God has many mansions in his house. If it were not he would not have said so.may your soul rest in eternity. Amen !! Nurse/friend Lesia Jones .

“ Mary,
It has been so long and I just so happened to be browsing the obits and started to read this one. OMG-this young lady looks exactly like her mother! I have not been in contact with you all in so long! I pray that God will give you strength to endure during your time in need.

“ Andrea, I am lost for words and so choked up... I still cannot accept the fact that you're gone. When you laughed, your little nose kinkled up and in the morning... you would always say... "Hey Eva Diva"... gonna miss you so much. You were a wonderful person and a WONDERFUL Mom to your children.... Rest in peace my Friend

“ Brandon, my nephew, Candace, and Mary, Ramone and Corey, I am very sorry for your loss. To Shirley and Fred, I am sorry for your loss as well. We all lose when a loved one goes home, especially when they are young and vibrant and full of love and life, but Heaven gains an Angel. I couldn't help but think of Trina. It made me sad to think they both left us all way too soon, but they made their mark on the world. I remember Andrea from a little girl. Time goes by so fast. My family loved Trina, and all of the kids, with Brandon being my nephew. Brandon and Candace, call me sometimes, I still love you. Tyrone cried like crazy when he found out. He always loved you all. I didn't know much about Andrea as an adult, but I pray she knew Jesus. I 've heard that she was a wonderful mother. To her children--hold on to your mother's love and memories and know that others share in your loss. I am praying for the entire family. God's love heals all sorrows. Look to Him for strength and comfort and direction in the days to come.

“ I keep waking up thinking that this is not real. Just a nightmare. You gave so many of us the ability to laugh when we didn't want to. Strength when we needed it. Love when we needed it. You gave so much to people and I'm not sure if you knew it. But you did. You will never be forgotten. You are an unforgettable person in the best way possible. The memories that we share together, will forever be in my heart and soul. I feel broken and empty inside. Watch over your babies to make sure they live the life you want them to live. I'm not sure how this Earth will move without you, but I believe that your kids will help keep your legacy, laughter, humor, love, and care alive. I love you Andrea. Rest in Heaven my friend, my sister.
