“ Andrea “get the butter” Jones was my special name for her. We would laugh and do little hand gestures whenever we came in contact with one another. It would be followed by a laugh and other jokes we would share. She was a true friend and kept in touch with me consistently until the day before she passed. I will miss her support for anything that was attached to me. She had my back. I knew it. Never doubted her friendship because she always made it known how she felt about me. Rest on Get the Butter! You’ve got it now! I love you Bae! Fly high! Sing Girlfriend! You made it!!

“ Craig and Andrea were the first babies, I babysat. Their parents were not only members of our church, but they lived across the street from us! So I visited often.

After many years, we reconnected on Facebook. She came home to Coleman Temple/World Outreach Campus; for the '60 Anniversary last year. She was such a loving, deeply insightful Woman of God. Just Thursday night, she sent me a text inviting me to VBM, Friday night, for the service with Pastor Hannah.

I'm so glad I was able to tell her how special she was to me! Rest in Heaven....
