“ Our condolences to the families and friends on the passing of our beloved friend Anna Hoover Lowery. We pay tribute to Annie, as we affectionately called her, because she was a good friend and always doing good. She loved the Lord. Our friendship goes back over 50 years. As children, we jumped rope, learned about our Saviour Jesus Christ in the same church, and became young wives with our children born the same day and same year. She was faithful to the Lord, to her family, and to her friends. We will miss her physically but she will forever be in our hearts.
