To Michelle, Mack and Family,

When I saw that your mom had passed I was very sad. She and I had been friends since Mack and Craige were in elementary school. The last time that I saw her was three years ago. I stopped by to see her when I was in Saginaw and she made me promise that we would keep in touch. She always called me O'Daniels and I called her Annie Myrick. Annie Myrick was good people She always had the well being of her children and grandchildren first and foremost in her heart. I couldn't have asked for a better friend. Love to you all and you are in my prayers.
