“ My dearest cousin,
“Anthony James Reed” The word of your passing hit me hard. I realized that our weekly talks to catch up on one another has stopped. Just about a month or so ago we were talking about something and I had a senior moment and out of no where I said Tony, what is your middle name? and you said Aw, cousin it’s James, you know that I was named after your brother, {James Edward Harris}, and just like that we were laughing and talking about how neither one of us could remember like we use to. Our reminiscing of our childhood growing up together, of going fishing, picking tomatoes and all those family barbecue’s....Those family barbecue’s that went on into our adult lives. The last time we got together a few years ago.... Tony, Carrie Mae, Thelma and Toya, George and I, it was good food, talking mess, playing cards and enjoying each other's company.... OUR LAST RODEO! ...Oh my brother I miss you and love you even more! Your loving cousins,
Stacy & George Polmanteer ❤️

“ Sending sincere and thoughtful condolences to our extended family members on the homegoing of cousin Tony. We pray that God will continue to cover each of you and bring peace and assurance of his love during this time of sorrow. While we aren't privileged as to why Cuz's name has been called at this time, we do know that we too shall receive that call. Therefore, it is our prayer that we remember and rejoice in the time's we shared Tony this side of Glory and continue with preparation for that great reunion in Glory hereinafter. God Bless The Family & Friends.
