“ Erskin and Catrice, our sincere condolences to you both as you mourn the transition to glory of your sister and a true Christian in the kingdom of God Tammy. The care and love you both had for Tammy was very evident by the time, as well as acts of kindness, you shared with her. She was proud to say that you were her family. Cherish the precious memories and love you shared with her and thank God for those times. We love you. Blessings, Uncle Fred and Auntie Rita, Saginaw, MU

“ My sister was a sweetest, kind and loving person. There was nothing she wouldn't do for me, when I struggled with addiction she was always there. Her door was always open no matter how late it was. If I was hungry she gave me something to eat. My sister was like my twin we were born 13 months apart . I'm going to miss her smile her laugh and her witty sense of humor. Rest in Peace Tammy rest in Peace my lovely sister.
