“ To the Jones Family:

I am so sorry for the loss of your dear son. There is no words that can express what you are feeling at this present time, I know how you feel because I have went through the same thing you are facing now. But God is the source of my strength and I believe if you look to God he will help console you durning this difficult and unbearing time. We can't understand why things like this happen but we will understand it by and by. May God keep and bless you and your family.
