“ I met Archie in 1964, shooting hoops on Houghton playground, me, him and James, would sit on picnic table benches, and kick game about how we were going to escape poverty and the hood, Boy did them brother's, love their sisters, I did not have a clue, how to love a sister. Till I met them brothers.....

“ Oh the memories of our Surles, Lawrence, and Foster families growing up on 12th, 11th, and Tuscola streets we were more like siblings than cousins. In that era aunts and uncles would show love as well as disciplining when needed. All the family gathering, the laughing and crying that bonded us even closer. Archie will truly be missed because he had that style and presence that even as a child demanded SEE ME, I am Archie C Wright Lawrence. Love you and missing you Archie, RIH
