

Mrs. Armell Woods

August 19, 1933 - December 29, 2024

Armell G. (Greer) Woods passed away peacefully on Sunday, December 29, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. Born on August 19, 1933, in Detroit, Michigan, to Frank and Etta (Robinson) Greer, Armell lived a life filled with faith, love, and dedicated service.

Armell attended Northeastern High School in Detroit and was an active member of Eastern Lake Baptist Church, where she was baptized and embraced her Christian faith. During a church convention in Saginaw, Michigan, she met the love of her life, Robert “Moe” Woods.

After moving to Saginaw, Armell pursued her education with perseverance and determination. She earned an Associate of Science degree from Delta College, a Bachelor of Arts degree from Saginaw Valley State University, and a Master of Science degree from Wayne State University. A trailblazer in healthcare, Armell became one of the first Black nurses to serve the Saginaw community, providing compassionate care throughout her career at Saginaw General Hospital until her retirement.

On March 6, 1955, Armell married Robert “Moe” Woods, her devoted husband of 69 years. Together, they built a life rooted in love, faith, and family. They were blessed with five children, daughters, Lynette Coleman of Southfield, MI, and Pamela (Tommie) Walls of Belleville, MI, sons, Robert Woods Jr., Donald Woods of Saginaw, MI, and Gregory Woods of Bellville, MI. She is also survived by her sister, Norma Braxton of Farmington Hills, MI; six grandchildren, Sonni (Qaharun) Muqaribu, Adam (Amber) Walker, Cathie Williams, Justin (Amanda) Walls, Chaz Walls, Lance Coleman, and special bonus granddaughter, Ametra (Darren) Burton; three great-grandchildren, Elizabeth Rose Walker, Damian Salvatore Walls, and Lillian Francis Walls; her sister-in-law, Barbara Jean McClellon; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and cherished friends, including Barbara Hill, Al Napier, and Gloria Napier.

On August 16, 1980, Armell joined 23 phenomenal women to charter the Tri-City (MI) Chapter of The Links, Incorporated, an organization focused on improving the quality of life in the communities it served. She was the chapter's first Vice President and later its second President, leading with vision and dedication.

Armell touched the lives of many with her kindness and generosity. She was known for her beautifully handwritten letters, thoughtful cards, and her tradition of sending money for pizza and ice cream to brighten someone's day. She had a deep passion for uplifting others, particularly young people, and tirelessly encouraged her family and community to pursue education and seize opportunities.

Armell was preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Etta (Robinson) Greer; her brothers, Frank Jr., Altomont, Arnold, and Robert Greer; her sister, Georgiann Evans; and her dear friends, Barbara and David Veasley.

Her legacy of love, kindness, and unwavering faith will continue to inspire all who were fortunate to know her.

“ My condolences and prayers go out to Mrs Woods family. Mrs Woods hired me at Saginaw General Hospital as a LPN in 1981. Mrs Woods was the only Black Woman at that time to hold a Supervisor position. We both worked the midnight shift and she always found time to come up to the 7th floor to check on me. She later invited me to join the Black Nurses Association. I found Mrs Woods not only to be Professional, Respectful, Knowledgeable, Caring, and she was always Honest and had Positive attitude. Some of her traits I try to Emulate. I'm so glad to have met her for she taught me so much and she didn't know it.

“ As a young black girl growing up in the 50s, I had beautiful black women on my street. There was my mom, Sally, Juanita, Millie, and Armel. Most were home makers but Armel was a career woman. She was one of the first career women I ever knew. That was the introduction of knowing that I could also be a career woman when I grew up. She introduced me to the Black Nurses Association. Armel was beautiful, poised, and that smile extraordinary but greater than that was her kindness. I have so many great memories of my childhood that included the Woods family. To Moe and the family my deepest sympathies. I pray that God gives you comfort and strength during this time of bereavement.
