“ My Pops was more than my Dad, He was my best friend as well Pops I'm still here and I'm still texting you waiting for a response then I realize that you're up there behind the clouds and into heaven with our Lord and Savior
I'll see you again Pops (Best Friend) and we'll build our muscle car and get our fishing license and do some other things we talked about
I'm going through it right now and I'm a soldier so I'll eventually understand but unfortunately for now I'm gonna continue to be your son my children's father and my grandchildren's Poppi
I love you man and I'm sorry (only you know what for) and I pray and promised you that I would slow it down and be the man that you knew I would be
I love you Pops until we see each other again I love you and I'm sending you all the Berryhill love you can handle
