“ I had the privilege of being Ashas neighbor and youth pastors wife for many years. She was sweet, hard working, tendEd hearted, thoughtful, friendly and animated. When she entered a room....every one knew it. She often helped me with my kids and always gave them her full attention. I remember when Asha received Christ as her personal Saviour. Asha was always inviting friends to church. Many of them came and got saved too; so I know Asha has some rewards already in Heaven.I'm not sure why God allowed Asha to leave us so soon, but I know that she is with Him in heaven and that I will see her again. I will miss her dearly, but am so thankful for the time I had with her and for her positive influence on the life of my family. My prayers are with her parents. ...who are awesome people and were awesome parents to Asha. We love you!
