“ Della, I was told that you were here, but was not told why. I was so sorry to hear about your mother and I can understand how you must feel, but when we trust in Jehovah the pain might go away completely but we will help us to cope.

“ To Barb's Family: I'm so sorry to hear about her passing. I have not seen Barb in a long time, but we use to bowl together. It was always a great time she always made me laugh. I looked so forward to getting out of work and heading to the bowling alley to bowl with her and the other ladys on our team. May the Good Lord watch over your family at this very sad time.

“ Richard, and family

*How do we convey
Just how we feel
When we lose someone we love?
How do we explain
The deep, lonely pain
The emptiness left in us?*

*No words can express
The hurt and anguish
Nor touch on how we feel
God shares our tears
And gives us His love
And He, in time, will heal.*

*The hopes and the dreams
We had just remains
Like an unfinished book of their life
As an incomplete chapter
Remains unfinished
With nothing more to write.*

*But we can know God's comfort
And know there is hope
With a new chapter to begin
We can hold on to God
For He loves us so much
And fills the void within.*

*As we close one chapter
Another can begin
Though the one we love has gone
Through Christ's strength in us
And hope in our hearts
We find courage to carry on.*

Elder William & Sis Vickie Hatfield - September 27, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ To Richard,

*When we lose someone we love
The loss seems too great to bear
God sends us friends to comfort us
To show that He deeply cares*

*But in the dark hours of the night
When there?s nobody else around
When we feel the saddest and loneliest
It?s there God?s love can be found*

*It?s like a soothing, healing balm
To soothe our broken hearts
The healing oil poured over us
That flows into every part*

*We can rest secure in God?s love
And know He?s by our side
He holds us when we feel as though
A part of us has died*

*We can know that God will listen
When we just want to talk
And when we feel we need to cry
We can share it with the Lord*

*For He is always waiting there
Ready with arms open wide
As we pour out the hurt within
He pours His love inside*

*Our Father above loves us so much
And will never leave us alone
He will not forsake us in our need
To face this on our own*

*He comforts us and strengthens us
And rubs us with His balm
And as the dawn breaks through the night
We'll awake in His loving arms.*
