

Ms. Beanitta "Bea" Dawkins

May 8, 1995 - March 3, 2022

On Thursday March 3, 2022 at the age of 26 years, our beloved daughter, mother, granddaughter, sister and aunt, Beanitta L. Dawkins transitioned from this earth. Beanitta was born May 8, 1995 in Saginaw, Michigan to her proud parents, Marcellus L. Dawkins and Stacy L. Washington.

During her early years, Beanitta attended Carrollton High School where she was the life of sports. Beanitta graduated in the "Class of 2013" after spending time wooing everyone with her cheerleading abilities. Beanitta was captain of her cheer team and could do a back tumble out of this world. She was also active on the Basketball and Track Teams. She had a personality that could connect with anyone that she met.

Beanitta had a strong faith in the church. Being reared at South 17th Street Church of Christ allowed her to have the opportunity to bond with many youths all over the world. Beanitta loved to sing when they would go to Junior Youth Conferences. Beanitta also had the opportunity to worship as a teen at Garden of Eden Pentecostal Ministries. This is where she used her voice and assisted as captain of the Drill Team. Beanitta even had the opportunity to showcase her tumbling ability down the church aisle. Her final conversion in her Christian walk was at Holy Mission Ministries. This is where Beanitta would bring her little ones to learn about God.

Being that Beanitta had the love of God in her, she also let that light shine with family. Beanitta believed in hosting holidays at her place and would throw down in the kitchen. She had so much talent. She was able to make jewelry and knit like she had been doing it for years.

Ms. Dawkins leaves to cherish her memory, three children, Brendon L. Dawkins, Jaiden L. Dawkins and Mariana L. Barnett; life friend and father of her sons, Iviunce Ezell; bonus dad, Ryan Washington whom she loved calling Bro. Ryan; sisters, Jeanitta L. Williams, and Jasmine Dawkins both of Saginaw and bonus sisters, Adriana S. Washington and Jazmon Washington both of Saginaw; bonus brothers, Matt (Patrice) Thomas of IL and Deonta (Maleah) Madlock; grandmothers, Delores Staffney and Hazel Dawkins both of Saginaw; grandfather, Robert Earl Dawkins; aunts, Tangina Madlock, Saginaw and Tracy (Tim) Kennedy of Arkansas; uncles, Stephone Thomas, Robert (Trebora) Dawkins and Duane (Margarett) Dawkins all of Saginaw; two special cousins, Chanda Smith and Yolanda Skelton; a host of uncles nieces, nephews, cousins other relatives and friends.

Beanitta was preceded in death by her grandparents, Perry Teal (Essie) Curry and Leroy (Rachael) Madlock; two uncles, Jerome and Percy Curry and cousins, Khyra Dawkins and Lee Madlock.

“ My condolences to the Dawkins family-My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this most difficult time. I, as well, knew Benita from Morley's and she was a amazing person. Her heart was filled with such goodness, warmth and kindness to all she encountered. May God wrap his loving arms around you and cover you in grace. Rest in peace my dear friend. I am so blessed and grateful knowing Benita-she will be forever missed.

“ Beautiful Beanitta was one of my students and how I loved her shining light. Her senior picture still hangs in my classroom. She visited me with her first born baby; she was so proud to be a momma—and I was proud to see the lovely young woman she had become. With God, Beanitta's light will never be extinguished. Love to the family.

“ I knew Beanitta from Morley. Great smile and so kind. We became friends on Facebook. Neither one of us really knew the other well and I thought it was so amazing she even bothered to answer any comments I made about a post or a picture she shared! But she always answered!! That always made me feel so good that she thought I was important enough to answer!!! Beanitta, thank you for your kindness! You are truly an angel now.

“ I used to work with Beanitta at Morley with the Jaguar and Landrover roadside. She used to say to me "Miss Karen don't forget to breathe" because she noticed that I would forget to take a breathe in between calls. Her laughter and smiles everyday made the job easier. Now with her gone, I am going to remember her in that kind way. My condolences to all families, friends and loved ones that knew her. Hugs to her children. God grant all of you peace. What a beautiful Angel and Soul she is. Love to you Beanetta.
