“ I will definitely miss Ben and his pleasant comical personality. I am remembering all the days and nights I spent with this family, my family, which accepted me as one of their own. I love you all! I am laughing now because I am remembering when Ben and I lead a song together in the choir at Coleman Temple. "God is Standing By." We had a lot of fun, back in the day! I remember flying to Mississippi with you all, for the summer, getting prayed for every morning by Mama Ceil. These are precious memories, that will keep him alive in my heart. I will miss Ben, but I will never forget him. Stein, Andre, Antione, Angel: you will always remain in my prayers. If I could I would be right there with you, but God is there and He sent His Son, He is the great Comforter! Myra Coleman-Williams

“ What a shock. Yes the Bible tells us "it is appointed unto men to die once" but it still hurts just the same. It seems like just the other day we we're talking and now he's gone. People pay attention. Time keeps slipping away. Make the most of it. To the Martin family you have deepest sympathy. We shared a loved one. His grand son Jordan is also my great nephew. God bless and comfort the family during this time of sorrow.

“ To The Martin Family, I'm so sorry to hear about the loss of your love one. Ben, and I go back to the days of Coleman Temple Church Of God In Christ. Boy were those the days! We also share the same family member Doug Johnson, who was from Pine Bluff, Arkansas who live in Saginaw. Our heart's are sadden because of this loss on earth. We pray that God, will comfort the Martin Family. Its been a while sense I saw Ben, but would speak of him from time to time. I had some fund memories of Ben at Coleman Temple, we had some good times there. Special those good night services where God would have his way with Ben. Ben is now in the hands of a Powerful God. All this tell me that we never know when or the hour, so we have to be ready. So those who don't know Jesus, as savior get to know him, our days on this earth is number. I will keep the family lift up in prayer. Your in Christ.
