

Billy G. Jordan

June 16, 1931 - October 4, 2013

The heavenly choir sang softly as Billy Gene Jordan, a faithful servant, was being escorted to his heavenly home. On Friday, October 4, 2013, Billy passed away at the age of 82, at his home with his faithful and devoted wife at his side.

Billy was born on June 16, 1931 in Jackson, Mississippi to Johnny and Celeste Jordan. He came to Saginaw as a young man. He was a Korean War veteran, serving in the US Army. He worked for Michigan Bean (Wickes Agricultural, Pillsbury, and ConAgra), retiring after 42 years of service.

On July 1, 1957, he married the love of his life, Annie M. Young, with whom he celebrated 56 blissful and endearing years. His hobbies were walking, telling jokes, playing cards, bingo, listening to music, and most of all cooking. He was an exceptional cook and maker of homemade ice cream. If you wanted the best ice cream in Saginaw, you went to Uncle Billy's. He was also an avid sports fan.

Billy was a faithful member of New Mount Cavalry Baptist Church where he served on the Usher Board, the Culinary Staff, and Deacon Board until his health failed. He was also Deacon Emeritus.

"Uncle Billy", as he was affectionately known, will be missed by all those whose lives he touched with his gentle, genuine, and kind personality and ways. He will be missed by his Hammel Street neighbors.

Besides his caring, devoted, and faithful wife, Annie, he leaves to cherish his memories, a daughter, Joselyn Jordan–Ford; grandchildren, Briana Ford (US Air Force) and Alexander Ford (US Coast Guard); also great-grandson, Jordan Ford (who shared the same birthday); Godchildren, Kenneth Fuller, Jared Franklin, Romonica (Foster) Ruffin, Tatiana Shipman, Saul Rincher and Shawn Walker; and special son, Leodis Ford.

Billy will be dearly missed by his sisters, Mamie Veal (Cleveland, Ohio) and Celeste Jordan (Jackson, Mississippi). He also will be missed by his many nieces, nephews, numerous godchildren, and many more members of his extended family who loved him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Johnny and Celeste; siblings, Harold and Johnny Jordan, Janie Ruth Veal, Ethel Mary Taylor, Mabel Jefferson, and Doris Kendrick; a special cousin, Melvin McKandes Sr. who was more like a brother; and a Godson, Derwin O'Neal.

His devoted wife says, "Billy will forever live on in her memory because love never ends."

Funeral service will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, October 14, 2013 at New Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, 3610 Russell Street. Pastor R. E. Donald will officiate with interment in Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly, MI. Friends may call at the Evans & Browne's Funeral Home, 441 North Jefferson Avenue, on Sunday from 2:00 until 8:00 p.m. The family will be present from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m.

“ To Aunt Ann, Joselyn, Sylvia and Family:
Uncle Billy was a blessed soul. I have fond memories of looking forward to his homemade ice cream after church. He's been a deacon and leader of the church for as long as I can remember - never hearing of him being involved in anything less than upstanding. That's commendable. Know that on behalf of the Haynes Family, we are praying for your comfort during this time.

Love, Shedrick (Hall) Faulk

Shedrick - October 14, 2013 at 10:41 AM

Shedrick: as did you, you KNOW I grew up with NO siblings. Some people lost their parents decades ago and they were grown when their parents died. On behalf of my mother, my two scion, Jordan family and myself, thank you for your sentiments. The Haynes family are family AND friends, it's been that way for decades. The reciprocal love and such continues on between our families. It is well.

“ To Ann and the family of Billy Jordan,
Our sympathy may not be satisfactory when a love one passes on to another land that maybe much better than the pain and suffering on Earth. Billy was a good man as I knew him. He always had a smile that was behind a good conversation. I am sorry that I can't be there for his home going celebration, but prayers has been and will be there for the family.
May God bless all of you, things that teen aged boys do I found out that Billy was the forget sneaking out one night and finding out the next morning that Billy knew all about it. Roland and I were awakened with a whop of “ Although I didn't know Billy, I wish to send your family my deepest condolences in your time of loss. I understand how difficult it is to lose someone you love in death. There's something that has always brought me much comfort that I wanted to share with you.

Right now in this old world, the pain of death affects us all very deeply. Yet, God promises a time when this will not be the case. Second Peter 3:13 says that there is a "new earth we are awaiting according to his promise" and at this time death will be "swallowed up forever." (Isaiah 25:8) We have some wonderful times that lay right ahead of us!

What about those whom we have already lost in death? At John 5:28, 29 Jesus says, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out." Yes, soon you will have the chance to welcome Billy back to a beautiful new paradise earth! May you find great comfort in these future promises. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.
