“ She was a beautiful woman of God who truly lived and preached the gospel.

She will be missed. Just last year or before I played at her ordination of becoming a Bishop. It was truly a beautiful ceremony.

I will miss her wonderful smile and her being a soldier in the army of the Lord. May God bless the family.

“ To Michael Ramsey & Family,

Sorry to hear of the death of your mother. You and your family are in my prayers. She will be greatly missed by all those whose lives she touched. You loved her but God loved her more and decided that her work here on earth was done and it was time for her to come home for some much needed rest. She is in a better place where there is no suffering and pain. She is with her Heavenly Father who has prepared a place for his good and faithful servant. Hold on to God's Hand and He will guide you through this period of bereavement. She will always be in your hearts to never be forgotten. Keep her light shining forever.

“ My condolences to the family. It's so hard to lose a loved one. But the bible is a source of comfort. God makes a wonderful promise to all his servants in Revelation 21:4. It says that soon our Heavenly Father will "...wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I hope your heart finds peace. Again, my sympathy.

Respectfully,
Tanza H.

“ To the Family

To Elton and Family of Kim Young

Our condolences to your family on hearing of your great loss. We were just speaking of her earlier today and how she mentored my daughter in school, and her wonderful sons that were close friends with my children in the neighborhood. She touched our lives in a great way. May God's comfort and strength take you through this hard place. Saginaw has lost a great Woman of God.
