She was preceded in death by her twin sister, Linda Joyce Hall and her father and mother. In 1968, she graduated from Benton Harbor High School where she wrote for the school newspaper. After graduation, Brenda attended Lake Michigan College where she earned an associate degree in English. Brenda resided in Saginaw, Mi., Chicago, Il, and Indianapolis In. She was a member of Holy Angels Catholic Church. At age 16 years, Brenda was confirmed and baptized at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Saginaw, Michigan. For 35 years, she served as an Usher at Holy Angels Catholic Church and member of the Parish Council. She was installed as an Eucharistic Minister and served diligently at any and all church events especially the annual fish fry.
