“ Can't describe in words how much you are gonna be missed Brittany. Everytime I bake a cake I will think of you. Everytime you came over you would say Aunt Dot can I have a piece of cake and of course you know I always say yes.. This is something that never should have happened. GOD stepped in and took one of our precious angels with one of the most beautiful smiles.. They always say don't question GOD, but all I know is that there is alot of broken hearts left behind. And NOONE can replace you Brittany. Trina you are in my prayers. Love Aunt Dot, Grandma Mattie, Uncle Skim, Melissa & Arianna, Terrie & kids, Aaron & family, Serrena and family

“ To: The family of Brittney Harry
I am totally devastated by your lost.
Brittney was a lot of fun, friendly and a hard working student. I will miss that unique laugh she had. My prayers are with the family. I took a picture of Brittney during the senior prom. That picture is displayed on my bulletin board for one year. May God continue to comfort everyone involved. Remember Phillipian 4:13," I do all things through Christ which strengenth me."

Love,

“ Trina,

God will never leave nor forsake you. Remember to look to Jesus in this time and at all times. God will give you the oil of joy for mourning and the garment of praise for your heaviness.

David said he never saw the righteous forsaken..... My prayer is that you seek HIM, for He will answer you!

Seeking Him,
