“ *My condolences to the Currington family from the The Ray family of Grace Chapel. I feel like I've known Carl my whole life I can still see him there helping people at the church he was there at the last 2 funerals I attended at Grace Chapel. Rest In Peace Carl you were always kind and caring helping everyone. It won't be the same to go there and not see you there. My heart goes out to the entire family.

“ Prayers and condolences to the Currington & Williams families, Some of my best memories of Carl, was his kind and gentle nature. Our neighborhood would not have been the same without him. I have not seen Carl in many years, but will not forget the memories. May God comfort this family with peace.

“ My Condolences goes out to the Family of Mr. Carl Currington , Mr. Carl Currington will truly be missed gone much to soon . I met Mr.C.Currington fifteen years ago at Grace Chapel Church, Mr. Carl Currington met no strangers always had a topic to talk about and courteous to all , Mr. C.Currington believed in God and he would always say he’s not perfect but he takes a day at a time an God knows where his heart is . He often gave long praise talks at church . Mr. Carl Currington has gone home to be with his Lord and Savior where ther will be no more Pain and sickness , he will be missed by many
