“ Carlos, I can't believe that you are gone. I was just this week trying to locate where you were so that I could touch basis with you. My heartfelt sympathies go out to your lovely wife, parents and all of your family. Throughout high school and beyond, you were always a great friend to the entire class. You never made me feel indifferent and for that I will always be grateful. Carlos, I don't know why but I trust that God has you in the palm of His hands right now and one day...we will meet again. Rest on my friend. I ask that God grant your family all the love and comfort that they need during this time.

“ Awww man I can't even begin to imagine how different my life is going to be without you. I can only hear your voice playing in my head over and over again saying "Ari you know I love you girl" after you made me so mad! Funny how we were so much alike that we could never seem to get alone but in the end we always laughed and told each other we loved one another. When Kamarion was born you always told me that you were so proud of me to continue on with my goals while being a single mommy. Without you here now I don't have any one to just pick on that knows I love them dearly. But I have to remember that God must have needed another reliable angel to carry on for him and he chose you. Losing you isn't the hardest part its knowing that I can't talk to you is what hurts the most. Wow what am I gonna do it just now hit me that you are indeed actually gone. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH LOSIE WITH ALL MY HEART! All I ask is that you watch over Kamarion who looked up to you so much. Until we meet again I will forever hold you in my heart, my mind and my soul. You were so important in my life now I must hold on to Debbie and Aunt Dorothy and remember the good times. Always and forever is all I can say!

“ Aunt Dorothy, Debbie and children
We pray that God will comfort and strengthen you through this unbelievable heartbreaking time. When we received the called it was so shocking I could not believe what my ears were hearing. Yet days later and it still seems so unreal. Not Carlos! It will truly be missed. When ever in his presence you better believe you were going to receive a big hug and a kiss and a "I love you." I will miss him this summer coming by the house at 9 or 10 am in the morning when he was in town. My girls would just look at him and laugh. He always brought a smile and a laugh to Burt Street. Carlos will be greatly missed. We loved him and we love you family. Carlos loved family.

“ Man, there is nothing that can be said to make it all "okay". Our loss is too expensive. The void is too big.

When I walk into my Aunt Dorothy's house and it gets quiet Carlos is suppose to crack a joke and have everyone rolling on the floor laughing. When I think I have heard it all Carlos is suppose to prove me wrong. When I don't feel comfortable Carlos is suppose to smile and make it all okay. The loss is too expensive. The void is too big.

We were all better for knowing Carlos. We will always be better for the memories he has left us with. Think about him for a second and I know you can't help but smile. He is a tribute to his mother. He is prize for his family and friends but still the loss is too expensive and the the void is too big.
