“ *Dear Smith family and friends,
Death isn't something we like to talk about-especially when we're young. We have our whole lives ahead of us, so who wants to talk about dying? Then reality hits the first time we lose a relative or close friend. Memories flood our hearts and minds. Theres an empty place at the table. The calls and text messages suddenly stop. There's a pain deep in the pit of our stomach as we ache to have this special person back again. It's even worse if the death was sudden. Sometimes we scream out to God, demanding to know why. But it's not for us to know this side of eternity. May God bless the Smith Family*

“ Dear Smith Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh even with the passage of time. I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms 83:18, Psalms 65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians 4:7)
