“ To my Cousins:

I will remember the good times we cherish together when Tweedy came to South Carolina. I can remember one time when she came to my sister's funeral and she looked at me and she was able to tell my husband and I that I was pregnant with our first child before we knew I was even expecting!!! I can remember another time when she came to visit my mother; which was her Aunt Dean. Tweedy had a gift from God and she was able to see death by the spirit of God. I am happy that she was able to talk with me and prepare me for my mother's upcoming death. Sleep on my dear cousin Tweedy and take your rest; we love you but God loves you best. You have a lot of family members in heaven that was waiting for your arrival. Our loss is God's gain.

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my family's sincere condolences. When someone you love dies, there is a sadness and a void that is excruciating and overwhelming. May it comfort you to know that our Creator hears our cries, empathizes with our broken hearts, and will soon act to rid us of this last enemy, death, forever. In the beginning it was me and you
Then another one came and it was no longer two Then it was me and you again
now you left me like the wind
We were so close for all to see
I miss you being with me
Test your soul and you will see
All that you have taught me
I will miss you like never before
But my heart will forever endure
The Lisa will have me to hug and hold
I will cherish our love forever YOU KNOW.*
