

Mr. Clarence Newton, Jr.

August 31, 1941 - April 26, 2019

Clarence Newton, Jr. was born August 31, 1941 to the proud parents of Clarence, Sr. and Othella (Carter) Newton in Downsville, Louisiana. He passed away on April 26, 2019 at the age of 77 years.

Clarence received his early education in Farmersville, LA and was a graduate of Eastside High in 1960. He attended Southern University Baton Rouge earning a Bachelor of Arts in Education. Mr. Newton earned his Master's Degree with a Specialist in Education at Central Michigan University.

Clarence married Weater Fay Johnson in Covington, Louisiana in 1966, she preceded him in death. He came to Saginaw, Michigan in 1968 and gained employment teaching, and working as the Athletic Director at Buena Vista High School. After rising through the ranks, he earned the position of Assistant Principal at the High School, and became the Principle at Ricker Middle School in the Buena Vista School District. He had a passion for his students. He inspired them to further their education no matter the situation. He would lend assistance helping them with their student aide as well as whatever was needed. He inspired friends in the South that were teachers to come to Saginaw to obtain jobs. He was a proud member of Chi Xi Chapter Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

Mr. Newton leaves to cherish his memory his son, Lawrence Newton,

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Mr Newton, I was a bus driver for Buena VISTA school district, we could always count on Mr Newton support when we had problems on our buses with students, he didn't take no stuff off the students, and they knew it too. He was always respectful and nice to me. I know he will be truly missed. The Bible says Almighty God will do away with Death forever. Rev 21:3,4.

“ Mr. Newton Was my multicultural class teacher my junior year at B.V. .Great teacher and great person always encouraging and always gave me good advice. He inspire young men to be Prepared and confident due to that Preparation. He was always positive and convincing about my future success. He made me believe I could Achieve at the highest levels and came To expect it of me and encouraged me To instill that same level of great expectation of those that I had influence with by leading. His word was his bond he was a great example For many young men of color during Some very conflicting times . R.I.P. Bobby Johnson class of 72.
