“ My goodness its been years, how many times have I thought about you all. I knew your Mother had passed. I'm sorry to hear about your loss. I'm not sure if you were aware that my mother had passed away in March of 2003. I remember you being our babysitter on the southside and when you won queen court at Saginaw High School in the 60's(smile). I also remember you gotten married a moved to Kalamazoo. I think your first child was a daughter. So many memories, I will keep you and your family our our. prayers. I hope to hear from you Martha and I will update you on the family.
