“ Such a kind and beautiful lady, we were neighbors behind her for years and enjoyed talking with her and watching her take care of all the stray cats. She was also a great friend to a our dog, a stray that showed up one day an never left. Somedays you would look out and she would just be sitting on the curb of the empty lot between us (Lucy's lot) talking with Lacy and rubbing her belly. I also remember her love of oatmeal raisin cookies, we took some to her for her birthday one year and she said " I have to hide those before someone else that was there at the time sees them. She had brought her pie and wouldn't want her to have all those sweets. My kids grew up calling her Miss Connie, what an incredible lady she was. Prayers to her family and friends.
