“Connie, I will miss our monthly conversations and the many laughs we had in our discussions. When I talked to you 2 weeks ago I knew you were in pain, but now you no longer have to endure that type of pain anymore. You are now home with Grandmama, Aunt Annie Joe, Daddy, Mama, Kenneth and Larry. They await you to show you around the gates of heaven. I love you very much, as you taught me a lot that some people don't even know you taught me. You taught me how to be self sufficient and independent. You were the older sister to all Grandmama's grandchildren. I love you very much and will miss you equally as well. Rest in peace my dear cousin, rest in peace. God has you now. No more worry.
Love always,
Jon "Sidney"

“My thoughts and prayers go out to the family of this wonderful woman. She was truly a blessing to me and my family when I lived on Athens St. She embraced me and my children with so much love. I will never forget the love and care that she gave us. God knew she was suffering and everything has to work according to His plan. To the family, I pray that you find comfort and strength in His arms.

“ To my God- Sister I know this road has been and will be hard losing your father and mother, but God would never put more on you than you can bare, God has a plan and my prayers are with you everyday, you have done everything that you could do as a daughter and now God wants you to look to him for your help and stength. If you need me I'm just a call away, and to the brothers, sisters, nieces, newphew and all other family and friends, Connie is with the angels and out of pain, we loved her but God loved her more. My prayers are with you all.

“ While I never met Connie in person, I got to know of her through her sister Merchelle who deeply loved her sister Connie. When Merchelle spoke to me of Connie I could almost reach out and touch the emotion in the air. It was clear to me that Merchelle was so thankful to be able to spend time with Connie during her illness. It also appeared to me that Connie was a very brave and strong woman who faced the journey of her illness in her own way and that her faith was there throughout. I know that those who were close to her will miss her greatly. To the family and friends of Connie I just want to say that I am so very sorry for your loss and will be praying for you as you learn to live without her.
