“ To The Walton Family; My heart aches for the loss of your son, I know all too well how this feels, since I've lost my sons, Benjamin and Maverick. My heart still aches for my boys, I still cry for them. Some days are easier than others. The pain doesn't go away but you learn to live with it. I heard nothing but good things about Corey, from people that knew him, including my daughter, Tameera. I do know Vince, he's a fine young man, he was friends with my sons, mostly, Benjamin. When my boys were with Vince or over your house, I never worried about them, I knew they were safe. I know there's really nothing anyone can say or do to ease your pain but if you need an ear to listen or a shoulder to cry on, I'm here for you, I'm not just saying that, I really mean it.

May the Heavenly Father keep you in his arms.

“ Love and Prayers to Corey's Family. The Walton Family were wonderful neighbors. Corey was a wonderful young man. It was always a pleasure to see him taking care of his yard in the summer. Waving and smiling. I was so proud of Corey, of how he continued to live in the home where he grew up, and show respect to his neighbors. He will truly be missed. God bless.
