“ Although death is never the right time for any of us, Our time of departure from this earth was already determined, ordained, and written in the book of life before the beginning of time. Our Father GOD only knows our time, but if we this power, how would we use it? Would we spread HIS truths and his word until he calls us home? Rest in Peace Young Soul until we see you in Heaven. Safe Travels... My sincere condolences to the rest of the family and friends
