“ Hi Delores and family; Honor thy father and mother that your days may be long(exodus 20:12).Condolences and prayers of comfort in your time of loss of your beautiful mother. I remember all the times of love and devotion shown towards your mother; you were a good, loving and devoted daughter. I witnessed this myself, and you should be proud of the time you were able to show love and shower your mom with loving attention.

God saw she was getting tired, and just changed her residence, in the pearly gates of heaven where there will be no more sickness and pain.

Be not sad, be not dismayed! God promises if we live right we will see our loved ones again some day.

So Delores, and Shirley, and family, be encouraged! Be Happy! Be Blessed! Be still and know God is still in control and he makes no mistakes.

Praying with you and for you during this difficult time.

Your friend, and classmate S. Michele Taylor-Foster from NC. class of '72.

“ Condolences to the family.
Affectionally known as Miss Daisy, a name & someone I have known since my childhood, is someone who was always a quiet, very kind compassionate person with a loving heart of gold. She wrapped her arms around us as kids as though we were her own. I continued to feel that love & compassion into my adulthood and every time I saw her. She had the love of God & that is the light that always shined through from her. That is what I will always remember and be very thankful I was introduced into her life. She will be missed but never forgotten by many of us. Our thoughts & Prayers go out to all of her family. God Bless you all.
