“ When I think of my Aunt Darlene, I think of summer nights. I think of staying up way too late, but never getting tired. I think of wanting those long summer nights to never end. From what I can remember, Aunt Darlene always lived a distance from us...but every summer my Mom would tell my sister and me “Aunt Dar is coming!” I lived for those summers with her and my cousins. Aunt Darlene was always so warm and welcoming. She would always seem to calm my anxious Mom down simply with a look. Her laugh was infectious. Her hugs could warm the coldest of hearts. Her smile would brighten a room. I love you Aunt Darlene. I hope you’ve found Mom and the two of you are reminiscing on the good times.
