“ I have a tribute of love for my nephew. This love simply can't be placed into words; the feelings of pain and lost are impossible to explain. There are so many feelings hitting me all at once, which were generated from three gun shots almost a week ago, and this event has changed my life forever. My nephews life will not be reduced to misleading words, and twisted truths. Darrell Lamont Gaines, Jr. was a human being with a loving family. I experienced and hold on to all the joys of embracing him from the very beginning of his life. Birth, smiles, words, steps, days at school, witnessing the range of his creativity, and the shaping of his personality. When I came home to visit, it was my Boo and his Auntie. That's all, nothing else to be said. As evidenced by all the support we have received from the community in Saginaw, my nephew was as special to this community as he was to me. I encourage anyone reading this tribure to seek the truth and make sure justice is carried out for my nephew, so his life and other young lives are not lost in vain. We don't always know the plan GOD has in store for us, and somehow as time goes on you feel better, but now, I selfishly feel cheated, and that this lesson came at a very high price. My family and I view this event as a wake up call to step up and to get uncomfortable with our so important lives, and daily routines, in order to make sure we take LEAPS of faith to do EVERYTHING in our power and take care of the remaining members of our young family. Darrell Lamont Gaines, Jr. was my first baby (nephew) and my heart will continue to bleed for him everyday of my life. I know he is now at peace and he is without worry. The spirtual impressions he left behind will remain with me all the days of my earthly life until my spirit is with him again in the after life. I LOVE YOU ALWAYS SWEETIE

“ Lil moon, I just want to let you know that I love and I miss you very much. During the times you were here I enjoyed the times when you would come over and we would laugh, talk, and at times I had to sit and talk with to see if you still had your head on straight. I still remember the time last year when you were over for ThanksGiving we had a good time and at that time we sat and had a long talk about your future and the things you were planning to do with your life. You were a very smart young man and you definitely had potential. If I could turn back the hands of time, i would replay that day and talk to you againg and tell how much I love you, what I expect from you, and be there for you mother and little brother. God always has a different plan for us, we just never know what it is and when our time is up. He dedided to take you with him and felt that it was time to go. I know that you are in a better place and I pray to God that he takes care of you and continue to be that strong, smart young man that I've known. To Janice I want to let you know that I am here for you, and If you ever need anything don't hesitate to give us a call, we are here for you. We love you and continue to keep God first and know that he will always comfort you and keep you. I will continue to keep you in my prayers and also continue to stay strong.

“ Moon was one of the first people that introduced himself to me at the High and we've been cool every since. I'm very sad that this has happened to you. A person that was so easy to get along with. I'm just happy that I seen you before you passed away. It's crazy how you were just with us chillin and laughin and now your gone. It is very hard to deal with but as long as I know your in heaven smilin down it is much easier for me to let go. I love you and can't wait to see you again

“ To the family

I jus wanna say that this is something so unexpected. Anyone that actually really knew the "real" Moon knows that he has a really kind heart. He was such a sweet person to me and to his family. He always expressed his feelings very truthfully and was an open-minded person. He was a young teenager that really cared about his family(especially his mother and his little brother). He had a very strong heart and was never afraid to pour out his feelings. This is going to be one of the hardest times in my life and definitely yours. But I know we can do it because Moon wouldn't want us to cry all the time and stress out over his homegoing. He would want us to laugh and be joyful from thinking about all the good memories we've had with him and all the times he made us laugh. Moon always kept a smile on his face even when he was upset about something and I know he would rather look down on us and see us laughing rather than frowning. One thing I always noticed about Moon was that he tried never to bring anyone down or hurt them and if he did he was so quick to apologize and he really meant it. Well need I say no more

Moon is loved and will be missed by many

“ I don't even know what to say this is so unreal. I always remembered when we were young Lil Darrell Gaines. We went a few years without seeing each other but everytime you would see me you would be like remember we went to school together I would be like yes moon I remember you. I actually got to spend time with you recently which I am so glad of. I wouldn't wish for you to be anywhere else other than where you are. I will always miss you moon and can't wait to see your smiling face.

“ I don't know what to say at times like this. So I will keep it simple and to the point and say what ever comes from the heart. First up I just want to say that I'm sorry and that my heart goes out to everyone Moon left behind, Janice and Qauey especially. There are not words to describe what you must be feeling right now nor for myself and my family. In recent years I have not been apart of Moon's life but the time I spent babysitting him as a child has always stayed close to my heart. He was like a little brother, I will never forget the way he looked up to me. It made me feel special. That is somthing that money can't buy. Little did he know that I also looked up to him.....I'm sorry like I mentioned before I don't know what to say. Just know that I love you Lil Moon and one day I will see you in Heaven. And Janice and Quay just know that he is watching over everyone close to him. He loves you and so do I. He is with God, and know that God will love him more then anyone here ever could. He is also with us, inside our hearts. Take care both of you and to all who miss him. -Mike-

“ Janice, Quay and Family,

I don't know what to say. I cannot even begin to say I know how you feel or what your pain is like. I can tell you that I feel a deep hurt and a great loss with Moon's homegoing. I can't help but to remember the summers I spent babysitting Moon and Quay. They were my babies too (smile). I love y'all and I know that God will give you comfort where no words, hugs, flowers or KFC chicken can.

Although I haven't seen Moon lately, I can still see his smiling face and remember his sincere sweetness. We all know he was loved, but he's with someone who loves him more than we ever can know.

*Love always,
Cray*

“ Moon, I still can't believe you're gone. I'd do anything just to see your beautiful smile again. It's kind of hard now that you're not around but knowing that God has forgiven you and you are in heaven smiling down on us watching us and leading us in a better path makes it a lil more better. Life ain't always what it seems to be. Sometimes times get tough and you just gotta think the unthinkable. It's unimagineable all the pain I feel now that I can't see you or even hear your voice when I want to. My thoughts are so big I can't define them or even express how I feel. I reminisce on the good times we had and I feel bad that we didn't spend more time together. I know your feelings were very strong for me just as mine were for you. But now it's too late to hold you and tell you how I feel. Sometimes I feel like I took your presence for granted but I always cared. I wish our relationship could've lasted longer. It didn't come to an end it turned into a deep friendship that will continue on forever because I know in my heart that you're still there. Till we meet again. I'll be missing you. Love you Darrell Lamont Gaines jr. a.k.a Moon

“ Boo I miss you so much. Remeber the times we laughed and played all night and after got a whooping for keeping yo mama up all night and she ahd to work the next morning. Remeber how you and Narc would get into it one minute and be friends the next. Nothing could replace how I would feel when i hadn't seen you in a long time and you would give me a big hug. I miss you so much. You are so special to me and never will be forgotten. I love you so much. The news tried to portray you as a monster who was a trouble maker. But they didn't know the real Boo. They didn't know how sweet and kind you were. And how you bought all of your mama's sister's something for Christmas on year. They just discriminated against you because you was a young black man trying to make it. Words can't express how much I miss you and how much I love you. I remeber 2 days before you passed you let me drive the car. It was like my first time driving, so now that I got my license I think about you. Everytime you got the car you came and got me no matter who was with you. I was your favorite lil cousin and your partner in crime. Can't wait to untill we meet again

LOVE YOU ALWAYS
