Big Dave that the name that I gave you I'm going to miss you the talks that we had in the parking lot. And when we would sit on the window seal in the building or the bench in the back. Or when you came down to first ward community service and we would talk and laugh and have a good time. I'm going to miss you I love you rest my friend but God love you best. To the Bandy family I'm sorry for your lost but God makes no mistakes you are in my prayers.

“ Rest well my dear cousin...we grew up together, the only house we were able to spend the night at, birthday parties from age 5 and up. You always had words of encouragement for any situation that came up. Gonna miss that corny laugh of yours... praying for Uncle Bro...rest well... and always know you are loved
