KH

You say that you are most successful one in family, I beg the difference your brother has not have a burial yet, since you so successful. You do a lot of fronting. That money you got from mam house and life insurance policy should be enough to bury her son to. You pocketed the funds.

Kathy Hardy - January 19, 2024 at 08:59 PM

KH

Best thing you need to do, is pull that money out your bank account and bury your brother. So we can move on in life. Since you so successful and you head of this family
