“ Well, I guess this is late, but I wanted to express a few words. I was a pallbearer for the funeral and it was truly a going home celebration. I met Dedrick a few years back, because me and his cousin Lenny, "Dove" was best friends. I often think about them times because I miss Dove so much. But I wanted to tell his mother to continue to praise God like you never did. He'll heal your wounds and in time will give you peace! Life is somewhat confusing, the paths we take and the road we travels seem dark sometimes, but as long as we keep the light on within ourselves, we'll make it. Struggles, experiences, life, death, makes up our being. But its up to us on how we reacts, and our attitude that can help us live!

See God for what he is: EVERYTHING!
Hold on to your faith!
