“ Deon's quiet nature is the first thing that comes to my mind when I think of him and all that has transpired. Through all that he endured in life, he had an aura of peace and love and I admired him for that. Not to mention his commitment to school. I think that Deon was at school more than I was. Whenever I would walk into the computer lab at the Delta Ricker Center I was guaranteed to see Deon and Lil'Rick on the computer doing a paper or some last minute work for which of course they would always ask for some help, and of course, I would charge them a slight snack fee (smile). My whole point is this- allow all of the things that you know to be true about him fill your hearts with peace and you will receive true contentment. Deon was a soldier; he was doing things that most men out here aren't doing(he was pressing through)he was going to school,serving God, and he was active in the church. That alone is an awesome example that should be patterned after. Tasha, I know how close the two of you were and that through his years of storms and battles you and Jean were faithful to him. Just continue to press through this hard time with prayer and embrace Deon's memories. And to the rest of the family, my prayers are with you as well.

“ Deon,
We will truly miss you. You were like a brother to us. I will miss you playing with the boys..everytime I say my kids - I can hear you correcting me saying no - 'children'. We may never understand or be able to accept what happened - but you know we loved you, it will always be a empty place in our hearts. You know it is just hard. My nigga for life "Gutta Boyz". As i sit here thinking i cant believe your really gone. The shock aint hit me yet what am i gonna do i try not to cry but its so hard not to . i have so many unanswered questions with no response - I keep asking myself - 'Why Dee...why?

“ Deon,

There is going to be a empty spot in our hearts, we cared dearly for you. Our children - boyee did they love 'Dee'. I can still see all 3 of yall down on the ground wrestling and doing karate. I cry every time I look at Tank...I tell him to strike his pose that you taught him & attack. Tank go miss you Dee, both him and Cam. They will never forget you, I'll never let them forget you. You were basically Tank's god father...you were there helping Nark many of days care for him when he was just an arm baby. Deon we truly miss you, everyday is hard to really believe that you are gone...to know that you will not be coming across the hall - telling us about your next busines agenda or good sale that you caught (smile). Who am I gonnna call when Nark piss me off -- you know you were my venting partner...and of course you would always make me see things differently. You never know how much you miss someone until they are gone. You were a friend to me and I know you loved my boys. You were a friend to Nark - it wasn't nothing that neither of you wouldn't do for the other...like you always told me..That was ya nigga...thick & thin. It gonna be had to see Nark everyday and his side kick not with him. It use to get on my nerves how much yall use to be together...I'll give anything to see that image again. Dee we miss you and I know that you know that we loved you. Love over us Dee - I already know that you are - you will always be there in spirit. Love, peace & happiness...Dee

Love always, your friend...."Rainy & Nark"..."Tank & Cam"

“ Deon you will be missed but never forgotten. You were one out of few that were pure and genuine when it came to being a friend. I just would like to say thank you for all you have done and all that you have shared with me and for me. May you rest and peace until we meet again. Also to the Wilbert family my prayers are with you. God Bless you all.

“ Deon, me and the kids going to miss u so much. Muff definitely going to miss seeing you at the store. We had alot of childhood memories. Deon would never let nobody mess with me and Rachel, unless it was him then it was ok. I can remember all our old civitan days. When I got the news I couldn't believe it and even though it's true I still can't believe it. Some things happen for reasons and we never know why. But what I do know that you was very special to everybody you came across. Every child life you entered you made them happy. Fatboy, I know it's going to be along journey for you, but just follow your dreams and everything going to be alright. When you think about doing certain things, think about what Deon would say to you. I know how it is to lose someone close to you. May GOd Bless you and your entire family.....

“ It seems just like yesterday that I was talking to Deon laughing and joking about life. Those are conversations that will last a lifetime. He was such a protector, if I was to go out he would give me and our cousin Kujuanna this look, like I have my eye on you. He would walk us to the car, no matter what the weather was like-he was so caring. The years I was able to be around Deon and get to know him better, are memories that will last lifetime. It is really hard for me to deal with me not having Deon in my/our life anymore but like my 4-year old daughter says "Deon is going to be in my heart forever". He is truly missed already and it has only been a week. For all the family and close friends, this is a time to unite as a family and remember and share all the memories that Deon gave to us. One thing he did pass on to me, end the conversations, the right way-Always let the ones you love, know that they are loved.

Love Ya

“ Frist I would like to say I am so sadden by this, but we all must surrender our needs to our heavenly father. My prayer go's out to the family and close friends. As we all know Deon was a dear humble young man who had deep care for children. I know there were times that we had very, very deep conversation, I remember times you would call and tell me your bored and I would tell you come sit on the porch @6:00 a.m. in the morning and kick it about life and know you have reach the end of the tunnel. I am really not believing this has happen but its true. Know I have to stay strong for T'era and Antjuane(Man-Man) because they are wondering where is Mr. Deon, they wonder who is gonna chase them from the store and you know man-man was gonna protect his sister so you did certian thing for him to react. I know the things you talk to Daniel would last a life time with him, I am sure his ambition has excelled to the highest. I gonna miss you telling me that I am a good mother. I am happy that you were about to touch apart of me and my children's life and this is a promise to you, I would never call a "child" a "kid" every again. I am ending this tribute but never the memories.

“ I cannot remember how I met Deon, but I was excited when I saw him again at an event at church. I was excited when he joined Greater Coleman Temple and begin to work in the ministry! What a blessing! I will miss him greatly. Whenever and wherever he saw me, he made sure he'd come over and speak, we'd laugh about something, he would tell me to take care of myself and that he loved me. One of my fondest, memories we were talking at the Hess st. store about his classes and life, I made a comment about my kids...out of the blue, he asked me if I was a goat or something???? :)! I looked confused, he said, "those are children...not kids."

“ Deon & I met as members of Coleman Temple. It was a blessing to watch Deon's growth in church & his willingness to serve. Deon was a man who was concerned about others.

My fondest memory is about a conversation we had. Sunday mornings I'm usually walking in over drive around the church. One day Deon said to me "You need to slow down." He reminded me that I needed to take care of myself. From that point forward whenever I saw Deon I took time to stop & check in with him.

Sunday as he was leaving the sanctuary Deon gave me his usual smile. I'll miss his smile and presence at church.
