“ I only got to know you when you were sick. But in that time I wish I could have known you my who life. Even when you were on deaths door you still had a joke and a smile for us mere mortals. I can say with a true heart that it was an honor to know you for the short time I did. You stood up and faced death like a man with no fear. Though you your heart beats no more, the spirit you shared with me, family and friends will last well beyond our oun time. I will miss you my dear friend. I will miss our joke time and our sports time. Thank you for allowing me to be the last person you watched a game with. The Braves won! Now you are at peace. Pray for the rest of us who hope to some day be where you are right now! Later Brother-in-law. May the peace of love be on you and your family. May they know they gave you all of themselves while you were here and need not wonder if more could have been given. God bless and give you rest. your task here is done, And it was a job well done!

“ Baby I miss you so and it hurts so much to lose you so young in your life.
Grownning up with you was a joy, playing football in our back yard as people gather from all around the neighbor hood to watch you fake us all out with your moves, boy you was good.

I will keep you close and always in my heart, you are my baby brother and you will never be forgotten. You are the first of Eleven to go be with the Lord, how blessed you are to be with your Savior. Your strenght has prepared us all for we all know the day will come when we all will be together again Praising Gods name sorrow. We grew up in the same neighborhood with Baby. He was

“ We appear in this life full of expectation to do one thing or the other not knowing what our lives will really become. Our parents do their best to train us up in the way we should go and once we're old enough having departed that path we return.

I have known Derrick all of his life. We grew up in the same church and enjoyed life together. Our families are still close. To Rev. & Mrs. Scott and to all the children be encouraged.

God is the God of all comfort and will comfort you. Cry when you need to cry and don't internalize your pain. If you need someone to talk to, I have a listening ear and a shoulder to cry on. That's what family is all about.

Being there for each other. Death is an enemy that has been conquered and we have the victory in Christ Jesus our Lord. From my heart to your heart know that God loves you and so do I.

“ To the Scott Family. May the Lord Keep your family in his prayers. I know you will all miss Derrick, but just know God has a plan for him. We do not always understand why God takes a love one from us so soon. I have been a part of your family for over 45 years. Derrick was raised by two wonderful parents, and a lot of brothers and sisters. He was and will always be your 'baby'. Stay strong and keep being the praying family that I have always know. “ To My Uncle Derrick (Baby)! You know your niece loves you to pieces!!! My heart hurts because you are not here with us in the natural, but I'm joyful to know that you are with us in Spirit and present with the Father.
