“ My deepest condolences to the family, Desiree was a beloved client of mine for many years. Our last session was in December right before Christmas and anyone who knew Desiree, knew she didn't let her hair grow long for long before she got the itch to cut it off. I was honored to give her a new look and looked forward to seeing her at her next appointment to discuss my trip to Jamaica. Desiree you will truly be missed, I soaked up all of the wisdom you shared with me during our many hairtherapy sessions. My heart hurts behind this one but please know that you will forever be in my heart. Rest Peacefully Beautiful!

“ Although I cannot be there in person, please believe that I will be there in spirit. Desiree was such a special lady! I met Desiree while working at Eaton Credit Union, many years ago. She was a good friend that eventually turned into a great friend! While fighting her own battle, she would often encourage me, as I was fighting my own battle with breast cancer. It takes a very special woman to be strong enough to encourage someone else, while fighting for their own life. That was the kind of selfless person she was. She was the epitome of a true Woman of God! I will miss her dearly and forever be grateful, for the special bond we shared, as we both walked by faith and not by sight believing for our healing. Rest easy, my friend. You fought the most honorable fight, and I will continue to embody the strength and courage that you shared with me, forever.

“ There are no words to express the deep sadness we have in the passing of this great woman, wife, mother, sister and grandmother. Desiree’s life was a true testimony of the love of God. She was the most loving, kind and giving person you could ever know. Our church family will certainly experience a void with her not being there, but the love she shared will linger and be forever cherished. Rest in heaven, my our sweet,sweet Des.
