“ WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years. But start out bravely with a gallant smile, and for my sake and for my name live on and do all things the same.

Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each walking hour in useful ways.

Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near. Never, never be afraid to die for I am waiting for you in the Sky.

“ To Ms. Mamie and Family:

I come as a former co-worker and as a friend. As her co-worker, the Student Engagement Staff wish to extend our deepest sympathy to you and the family. We are in total shock to hear of Diane's transition but we also know that God makes no mistakes. As a friend, I have been knowing Diane every since I was a young child. She would be over to Ms. Daisy's when ever I would visit. I will always remember her as a woman of class, respect and wisdom. Our prayers are with you Ms. Mamie and we know that God will give the strength to endure the days ahead.

“ Diane was the lady extrodinaire always and that is how I always referred to her up on getting to be a friend while at Fisk. I am blessed that I was able to see and share a moment with her at our last reunion in 2010.

May she rest in eternal peace and may God bless her family in these times.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Diane Short's passing. For many years we served together as judges for the Martin Luther King Talent Contest. She always had a smile and a greeting for me when we passed in the hall. She was always "up" when I saw her and I would imagine she was quite an inspiration to the students she worked with at Delta. I think the college and the community will be diminished by her passing. I had several discussions with her about Willie Thompson's funeral. I know she too will be "waving at Jesus" and "waving WITH Jesus".

“ To the Family of Diane Short,
So very sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. She was a vibrant person who enjoyed life. She was a caring and giving person who thought of others. She will be greatly missed by all those who knew and loved her. Our prayers are with you and the family. Remember you loved her here on earth but God wanted her with Him in that heavenly home, so he decided to call her home to rest from a job well done. She was a good and faithful servant who answered the call of the Lord. God will guide you through this period of bereavement, lend on Him now and forever. May she rest in peace.

“ WE do not know the time or day when we will be called.
BUT what's important for us now is to give God our all.
DOING so will assure us a life on the new paradise earth.
FOR God has said those trusting in him will be graced with a new birth.
SOME will live their lives in a new spiritual heaven.
OTHERS may very well greet relatives where God has chosen them to gather.
SOON, tears will be wiped from every eye, as found at Revelation 21:4.
NEITHER death nor mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more.
THE former things have passed away, is what he has said.
GOD'S love for us will erase the bad, and bring back the good dead.

“ To family and friends: I have known Diane for such a long time and I do remember she smiled a brilliant smile. Oh yeah, there were times when she showed a scowl, but smile or scowl, I so enjoyed knowing her! She cared for the kids and wanted the best for them. She will be missed by many.

When she left, I know she wore a beautiful crown (hat) upon her lovely head.

“ Diane ALWAYS greeted me so warmly, even when just passing in the hallway! Maybe she just knew I needed mothering, somewhere deep down. I never knew she had attended Fisk--my father taught at Vanderbilt when I was little and one of my finest memories is a Christmas Choral concert we attended at Fisk.

It is so sad that I did not know she was suffering from pancreatic cancer, something I have dealt with (though with better outcome, so far) for 8 years. So wish I could have spoken with her before her passing! Diane was one of my deeply treasured colleagues!

“ To Ms. Mamie and the entire Short family. My deepest sympathy and prayers are with you during this time of endurance. I will truly miss Lady Di, I always looked for her latest hat fashion and only wished I could wear one with such grace as she did. Diane will be missed by many and truly remembered in our hearts. May God bless and keep you during this time.
