“ To the Linzey, Brandon, and Diggs' family,
My condolences to all of you during this very sorrowful time. Diane was a kind person who always made me laugh whenever I saw her. Her laughter left joy with all of those who knew her. I know your hearts are heavy and I know your family has suffered another great loss, but seek comfort in the Lord. Knowing that Diane is home with Mama Clara, Bonnie, Steve, Sally, Clara T, Jessica, Laterrica and Lil' Chris gives me comfort and I hope it does the same for all of you. You all will continue to be in my prayers.

Love, Felice

“ Wow, this was a shock to see this, I didn't know Dianne married name. But anyway please accept my prayers. We go back along way, Central Junior High days, from Mama Dee, her Aunt and Coleman Temple. Its never a good feeling to see friends and love ones like this. Even though this is a jounery we all must meet, this can catch us off guard if we are not looking for this. I do remember the last time Dianne and I talked, remembering old times and laughing. My prayers goes out to all of yous. The Woods & Darden Families & my special friends Ronnie & Rita Kay, JoAnn & Doug, William and there Families. Know that Dianne is at home with love ones now and most of all our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ. Pete

“ Dear Tomie & Family,

My deepest sympathy to you and your family. Several years ago, I enjoyed many good Bible discussions with Dianne as we sat around her big glass dining room table. Isaiah 25:8 Jehovah God assures us that He will "swallow up death forever". Acts 24:15 promises of a "resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. May you find comfort and hope in these scriptures.

“ Earline, the Hollis Family wishes to relay our sincerest condolences to you & your family. We also lost a sibling earlier this year & you were right there with us. We hope you can find peace in knowing that everyone has an entrance & an exit. Only God knows when that day or time will be. Be strong and your family be Blessed. God does not make mistakes. We love you.
