“ Hi. I was Don's "wife's" granddaughter, also Joseph Granger's daughter. I didn't go to the funeral. A memory that really sticks out to me about him was after Terri (my grandmother) passed away in 2006, he said to me, "You're getting big, and I don't mean tall." My favorite memory was when I was little. He and I would argue over who's grandma Terri was. He was a great guy, and he's missed. I love you, Papa Don. I miss you. Tell Grandma I said "hi."

“ Dear Craig Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.
