“ To the Essex Family- My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of mourning. Our families were so Blessed to be a part of each other's lives. I remember as a child, wonderful memories with Levi and Dorothy, and my parents loved them dearly. I hope the four of them are now rejoicing together in Heaven. May God hold each of you high in his eternal light! Anthony E. Flourney

“ My Mother!!!!

The pain is overwhelming. I've never experienced this level of pain. She taught us how to lean on God. The scriptures are true. You taught us well Mom. I need you!

You served God with all your heart! You never waivered in your faith. You ALWAYS prayed and you prayed for us. You taught us how to hear God's voice and how to study his word.

You taught us how to put God above everything and everyone. You taught us that Gods love is true. I can't bring you back. I wish I could. Help me Father, help my siblings, help my family to walk this road. A tough road. I know that my Mother lived for God with everything. Carried away by the Angels. Went from labor to reward. Resting in the arms of Jesus. Her Saviour, Lord, Father, husband and my Mom!!!!
