“ I send my condolences to Phillip Pruitt and to his family. I like to say that Mrs. Dorothy Pruitt was a wonderful woman. She was real and she kept it real. It was a pleasure meeting Mrs. Pruitt. I will cherish her tough-love attitude toward, Phillip and his siblings. And I would have loved to have her for a mother-in-law. But, Phillip and I didn't make it that far. Please believe, Phillip your MOM is in Jehovah's God hand now. And he will care and keep her spirit. Until HE is ready to release it again at resurrection time. I would to leave this bible-scripture with you all. Revelation 21:4 reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Also, John 5:28,29 "All those in the memorial tombs will...come out." See Jehovah God is going to resurrect all our dead love ones.

LOVE, Ms. June J. Rodgers & Family. P.S. May Jehovah God be with you and your family, Phillip during this time of bereavement. Love you! Take Care!

“ Derek, DeCarlo and Donna,

I am praying with you in the loss of your mother. Your mom loved you with everything she had. Please know that weeping may endure for the night, but joy comes in the morning. Joy in knowing that Jesus is your all and all. Remember to put God first in everything you do!

Love Always,

Linda Ann

“ Derek, Decarlo and Donna, I am sorry to hear of the passing of your mom. Prayers from my family to yours. Hold to Gods unchanging hand. Your mom was a very nice and sweet person and so was your dad. Enjoy every memory that you endured with her and know that she is in a better place. May your family find comfort in your weakest hour. Know that we endure pain for a night, but joy comes in the morning. God Bless.....The Cooper's and Wearrien"s
